LOOMIS, ON STAND,

Alibi Also Established for Ex-Cowboy Charged With Killing Woman

LUNATIC REPUDIATES STORY

Easton, Pa., Sept. 25.—Robert Loomis, known as "Reckless Rob" took the stand in his own defense at a special session last night in Judge Stewart's court, and gave his life his tory from the time he was born to when he was imprisoned, charged with the murder of Bertha Myers. He denied having anything to do with the murder.

During the trial, earlier in the day, a statement alleged to have been made a statement alleged to have been made to the superintendent of the State Hos-pital for the Criminal Insane was ad-mitted to testimony, in which Charles M. Shrope, lunatic, repudiated his con-fession which led a jury in this city to fession which led a jury in this city to convict the ex-cowboy two years ago.

Loomis's testimony was in answer to questions from Attorney Stotz. It brought out that the defendant was horn in Kentucky, drifted to Oklahoma, Wisconsin, Montana, Washington, Illinois, North Carolina, Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York and back to Pennsylvania.

The narration showed the defendant has had little education. He had chosen three vocations in life, that of a rancher, soldier and showman. While on the plains of Montana he engaged in breaking horses that had been sold to breaking horses that had been sold to the allied nations during the world the allied nations during the world war. Later he enlisted and was sent to Fort Wright. Spokane. Wash. He was transferred to Camp Robinson. Wis, then to Pluttsburg. N. Y. and finally to Camp Greene, Charlotte. N. TO GIVE REBATE CHECKS

Order is Operatve in Holmesburg Until Further Action Is Taken Samuel M. Clement, Jr., and Jame S. Benn, of the Public Service Com-mission, yesterday directed the Frankmission, yesterday directed the Frank-ford, Tacony and Holmesburg Railroad Co., which recently established two zones on its line at a fare of six cents on each, to issue rebate checks. The checks must be given beginning Mon-day. They will continue until the com-plaints filed have been finally passed upon by the commission.

The two-zone system on the line has been attacked by the filing of a com-plaint by the Holmesburg Improvement Association and other organizations and was to have been heard yesterday but when the matter was called up f attorney for the railway company sa property, which is in progress, had no been completed and would not be for three weeks. A suggestion was the made that this and other complaints of poor service and inadequate equipment be combined and heard at the same time.
